DWARFING THE CENTAURS

Recently we introduced two new objects as delineation was due for centaur 2006 AA₉₉ as well as dwarf planet candidate 2007 JJ₄₃. That is to say, these objects are bound to be included in horoscopes of RTRRT initiates. Accidentally, the copious 2007 JG₄₃ delineation precedes that of 2006 AA₉₉, as it was due in unison with “Obama planet” 2007 OR₁₀, some years ago. Said dwarf planet was nicknamed “divorce planet” for the occasion. Much as in the case of Famke Janssen's *political career*¹, we learned about apparent President Obama's divorce issues only after publicizing the series. Thus, no default news were included. Much as Famke Janssen could become the new pope² (sic), so Obama's divorce is but a fair possibility. However, we alluded to the divorce from Vatican at its lingering stage³ in 2014³, rather than civil marriage issues for that matter.

²Fatal enough as Scarlet Lady, but not born in August 2007. See 7 Hills of Hydra.

DWARF PLANETS IN ASTROLOGY

The following list serves as update to your horoscope. Apart from all centaurs, comets and various classes of objects of interest, these dwarf planets candidates have been delineated within your every horoscope. Note that “Tekton”ⁱⁱ 2002 AW₁₉₇, Ixionⁱⁱⁱ and Vesta are of the same size with 2007 JJ₄₃.

PERSONAL NATAL CHART REPORT

Are you an astrologer? Would you like to be informed about the real positions of your planets? Than this service is for you⁴. And the best is that it comes of your own design!

⁴Up to you. Custom service implies detail. Detail such as a special ephemeris calculus are mailed to our clients directly from the NASA JPL server. Periodical comets may be included. That is to say: you design your own service.

CUSTOM SERVICES

Would you like to focus on detail as concern your horoscope? Not only giant comets but also tiny centaurs influence your natal configuration. When it comes to prediction, accurate planetary positions determine the result to the minute. Thus, for extra fine tuning of your karma, we peruse the secondary angular directions, an exclusive astronomic technique in astrological prediction.

DATA

Where do your natal data come from? Scientific astrology is powered by authoritative sources. Your main references are SIMBAD, NASA JPL and the Harvard MPC.

<http://lulu.com/astrology> is your premier guide to the latest dwarf planets^{xi}. The site hosts all the dwarf planets and centaurs in astrology, from the first to the last. From Pholus and 1992 QB₁ to 2007 JG₄₃ and 2009 YE₇. Yes, we always delineate the objects before they get^{xii} their proper names^{xiii}! We catch them in flagranti before they reach the dull safety of their nomination. Thus, the object is delineated, its spirit, not its designation or name. Nama and rupa are discreated. As in True Mind Distiller^{xiv}, names and forms drop of in order to expose essence.

668191	2010	2010 FX86	[...unnamed...]	4.40

676085 2010 2010 KZ39 [...unnamed...] 4.00

These are the last relevant entries as concern the dwarf planets candidates. Note that 2009 YE₇ has received copious delineation (in the year 2009) like all items of interest in modern astrology. Our present research is therefore focused on 2010 EK₁₃₉.

The Harvard MPC is a fairly cooperative institution, much as NASA JPL. Even the IAU has astrology on its schedule. These raw information should encourage any incipient astrologer in participating in the naming of the dwarf planets and objects of interest. We often use “objects of interest”, mostly with the meaning of all objects {sic}.

No wonder nothing was known of the planets and minor planets, not even of giant comets: analysis focused on their names, not the spirits themselves. Any analysis devoid of theurgy borders on popular numerology: cheap amusement that may ruin quite some lives.
